An Odd-Fellow's Song.

'Tis sweet, 'tis sweet, 'tis passing sweet, To be where men and brothers meet, Untouched by care or sadness; For there the heart partakes of joy, And there unmirk'd the moments fly, Pursued by mirth and gladness.

It pleaseth even Heaven to see Men join in social unity To soothe the woes of others .

By Love and Truth in league combined-Such in our little halls we find, For such are Friendship's brothers.

May joy be theirs where er they found, May Truth prevail and Love abound In all their courts of meeting , And Heaven grant me this my prayer-Soon may all earth-born mortals share A true Odd-Fellow's greeting

A Plea for the Sailor. BY MRS. MARYS B DANA

A cry fills the air ! Christian ' it calls on thee' Help for the mariner Whose home is on the sea! Ye rich! ye poor! it cries to you Salvation for the Sailor too!

He hath a noble heart-Free as the mountain wave . But oh ' your aid impart' He hath a soul to sare! In all you give will God delight, The rich man's gold—the widow's mite

When jours the stormy blast, And billows mount on high, When, from the rocking mast The yards and canyass at -Though hope depart, if God be there, The Sailor's heart shall know no tear

While we, secure from harm, On downy pillows sleep, The sailor feels the storm-Tossed on the raging deep His home the sen-the wave he rides-His heart still brave-n hate er betides Ye dwellers on the land,

Beneath your peaceful shade. Stretch furth the willing hand, And give the Sailor aid Joyful to learn the way to Heaven, He will not spure the blessing given. And when religion's voice

I≺ heard oer all the sea, Then shall Heaven rejoice, And earth keep jubilee! When land and sea, in loud accord, Shout halleluples to the Lord!

Ornamental Trees. To the Editor of the Whig and Courier.

As this is the season for transplanting ornamental trees, a few remarks respecting the method of doing it may not be unprofitable nor uninhave been transplanted on previous seasons; been set out on previous years the appearance of the trees indicate two or three prunings and in three of all the trees set, that die. There is, in this, a vast deal of labor lost, besides injuring Permit me to lay down a few simple rules for transplanting trees, which if followed as far as

In the first place, then, do the work with your

Great care should be taken when the tree is taken up from its original soil to preserve as far small fibrous roots, they being the arteries which take up its nourishment from the earth and carry it to the main trunk of the tree, as the small arteries in the human system are the instruments which carry the blood to every part of the body The large roots are of but little use if all the small fibrous roots are stripped off. Do not, by any means, if you would have your tree live, cut off the roots within two feet of the trunk, it is better to dig a little farther and take a little more care this year, than to do your work over again next. There should also roughfares of the city, and is conveniently arrang- be as much dirt as possible left about the roots of the tree, for they are already set and in a growing condition in this soil. Care should also be taken in removing the tree that the bark does not get injured

The tree should go into the ground, if possible, the same sides to the same points of compass that it stood in its original soil, and in every other respect the same; and here comes a practice which is wrong in every particular, and to which I wish particularly to call the attention of the reader-that of lopping off most of the limbs and cutting the top of the tree off, a practice necessary cvils. short, I notice is followed by most persons in how near they could come to taking the life o the tree and not quite do it. Not a limb should be taken off unless it be some which have become accidentally bruised. In taking off the actual support of it, for a tree taken out of the ground at this season of the year has already sent up a large quantity of sap into every branch and if it had not, every one knows how it will force itself out of any place where the tree has been cut or bruised, so that you lose more by its running out or by evaporation than is necessary for the support of the part cut off. I will go no turther to prove this to be a very erroneous practice, and every one will be satisfied on examination. It certainly would be readily allowed, that if one should cut off one of their fingers, more blood would run out of it than would be necessary for the finger the same length of time , it is equally true to a certain extent with a tree grow more into branches rather than height, it is better to do it after the tree has got one or two years age in its new soil In setting the tree in the ground a hole should be dug sufficiently large to admit all the roots without crushing them, then a quantity of well totted manure, or black loam, or top soil should be placed in the bottom of the hole and also round the roots before filling in the earth which came out. I have thus stated a few of what I deem important rules to be observed in transplanting trees, which I was led to do from seeing [ them often violated by careless or ignorant persons, and if any thing of value can be gained from them my object is attained

Washington, April 25, 1844 To the Editor of the Whig and Courier.

Having a few moments leisure, and having just reached our National Capitol, I will pen a few lines pertaining to occurrences and impres sions developed while journeying from your flourishing city hither; and before closing giving some brief account of life in Washington. The I notice as I have passed through the streets 9th day of this month dawned with peculiar beauof the city, a large number of dead trees which ty and serenity, and simultaneously with its light did your accomplished Capt Howes order many are being taken up and others substituted his elegant boat under way from Frankfort bound for them I also observe that whever trees have to the good city of Boston. The disposition of my time made it Tuesday the 14th inst, P. M. when I left Bospracticable, not more than one in ten or twelve ton for New York, and as we were driving along the Worcester and Norwich Rail road, in the dark, the engineer gave the alarm that some own hands, or employ no one whom you cannot danger was ahead, but before the speed of the train could be much checked we ran over a cow, crushing body and spirit in the dust. All the cars were thrown off the track, and the passengers were brought into a confused state without loss of time the lights were extinguished by the pitching and tumbling of the cars, thus giving the ladies the privilege of looking pale without incurring the risk of being thought wanting in nerve. In a couple of hours we were again on our way, and reached the boat, waiting to take us across the Sound, at 2 o'clock, and was safely landed in the great and noisy city of the "Gothamites," at 11 the same morning. New York! How many have entered its limits and semained years of their existence without learning one of its principles of life or one of its leading features. Can you learn the climate of the tropics, only as you know that it is constantly changing and variable? So may you know this Paris of America and never more certainly; it is made up of every people, and of every disposition and moral principle, and there is no constituted power to give directness to these elements, and, hence, the influences constantly shooting out are irresponsible and too often con flict with each other-magnificent loxury and squallid want are closely interwoven in her society, and dissipation and crime are regarded as

As steam carried us farther South the face of nature improved, and when we reached the city of "brotherly love," its suburbs looked green and attractive; the grass had shot up and the trees had put forth their foliage. In this city nature has decked herself off in great style; she has not been contented simply to put on a gree frock, but has covered it all over with choice and varied flowers, probably in honor of Henry Clay, who is about to visit us. The weather here, yesterday and to day has been very warm, 78 in the shade, and it looks and feets like your mid-summer. The disgraceful broil in the House of Representatives, two days since, caused but a momentary impression in this community, so familiar are such scenes to its members. I was in company with the Speaker of that body last evening and adverted to the affair, when he remarked that "to day the House has been as calm and regular as a clock;" and further remarked that such incidents appeared necessary to clear the political atmosphere. The citizens are waiting with much solicitude the action of And again, if you cut off the top to cause it to the Senate in reference to the Texan Treaty, some of the most intelligent opposers of the measure fear the result, owing to the sly stealthy manner in which the whole affair has been concocted and served up. The Whig Convention delegates are beginning to come in and this city expects to send four hundred. I was convers ing yesterday with a very prominent gentleman of the Loco party, who remarked; "Henry Clay will be our next President; " and last evening I was talking with a gentleman from Tennessee about the political prospects of Clay and Van Buten, and although he appeared adverse to our cause he still admitted that Clay's chance was the best in the West and South West He said that Tennessee was sure for him, and t at if Van Buren was the Loco nominee Alabama would give her vote for Clay; mstancing one Estimating the area of Texas at 350,000 square county in that State, Jackson, which gave up to miles, an estimate which is generally made and the last year a handsome floco majurity, but which at its last election gave a Whig majority which it is proposed to annex to the Union is one of 250; and he says the whole State is characterized by such changes We shall have t e reins of Government in our own hards next as Spam and is almost equal to England, Scot. May Day---Pick Nick.

May morning was unpropitious, on account of the rain for the appropriate celebration of this popular festival of the birth of the flowers. There were several parties that started very early before the rain commenced but were compelled to the man to conceal an opinion or to fail, on all give their second Concert at the Theatre this return dripping with wet. One party, in which our children were interested, after a ramble in the woods to their nicely fitted bower, returned, wet and disappointed and were allowed to spread their refreshments in an upper room and there to celebrate the morning festivities on the occasion. Before noon the Sun came forth in its glory—the air was balmy and tempting and every little flow. er brushed off the pearly drops of the morning and looked up in gladness to the clear blue sky Many parties now sauntered forth to the woods and collected large bundles of fresh and fragrant

In the afternoon we were present at a splendid Temperance Pick Nick given by the Martha Washington Total Abstinence Society in the North West part of the city, at the dwelling house Wilder Taylor Esq., The large hall in the house was decorated in a tasteful style with evergreens and flowers and on one side, was erected an elevated pulpit-like structure covered with a rich coth and on the wall in the rear was a well paint-

That portion of the city was alone represented. The free and joyous buzzing and chatting and merry laugh of mingled voices and the flittings of graceful torms through the mazes of the assembly, were at length seduced to silence and order by the command of the President of the Society. The gay tables were covered with white cloths, and all were comfortably seated. A prayer was offered to beaven for the blessing of God on the occasion and the cause. A Hymn was sung. There appeared in the pulpit two youthful lemales, and as the last strains of the music died away one of them, Miss P. W. Godwin arose and read an address.

This occupied about fifteen minnies when her companion, MISS ELECTA P. EVELETH took her place and read another address. This part of the performance was highly interesting both from its novelty and from the chaste style and florish so long as the country can enjoy a settled cogent reasoning of the productions, and the happy manner in which they were delivered .--These young women did themselves great credit, by pleading so eloquently for the cause of and vicinity in concurrence with the Grand temperance.

After all had feasted, order was again restor ed, and on invitation, one of the invited guests addressed the company at considerable length. Songs were then sung, and the pleasures of social interconse enjoyed for sometime, when a sale of the unbroken cake took place. The president of the Washington Society purchased a huge frosted loaf, presented to the Festival by the wife of Major Joseph Abbot, and made a present of it to the editor of the Courier for the interest he had taken in the cause of temperance in that vicinity

Association at their hall this evening.

IT The Gazette of Wednesday undoubtedly thought to be very severe in announcing that the report of the forthcoming letter of Mt. Clay against the annexation of Texas "proved to be a generous hoan," and that " it may not come at all." Our neighbor having thus relied upon his hopes rather than existing facts in the above view of the matter and having throat so sharp a thorn in the sides of the Whigs probably went to bed a very happy man, with an extra chuckle at his success. But alas, for him; while he was enjoying his dreams our compositors were busily engaged in putting in type the veritable letter itself, to greet our neighbor at the first opening of the day. The sting of the Gazette article was) as weak as wick yarn.

In announcing the reception of Mr Clay's letter the Gazette calls it Clayish, as though that was a term of reproach, and promises to give a synopsis of the letter, probably in small doses, that it may not hurt. 'Clayish' say you? Right, by accident, for once. It is a manly letter, trank, decisive and honorable. Henry Clay was never reached this city long before their arrival, will suitable occasions In giveing utterance to his con- evening. victions. This letter bears the stamp of his noble character-it is Clayish, it sticks to the text, it adheres to the right!

The loco papers generally in the country ire laboring with great zeal in apreading their opinions before the public that Henry Clay cannot be elected president. Now the conductors of these papers should understand that previous to the election of Gen. Harrison they so often stated that Harrison could not be elected and Van Buien would be, that they all become bankrupt in reputation and in fact, as political prophets. They then decieved all who relied upon their statements. Their friends lost thousands of dollars in bets made on their promises. They should be modest about trusting their promises before the people. They have no credit in the community, and if they believe their own statements they will find the people do not. Broken down, burst up, and dishonored false prophets, cannot expect to be credited by sensible and prudent people.

Boston Daily Mail.

The proprietors of this paper have enlarged its size, and put the whole in a new dress with new type. It is a chatty, nimble and useful newspaper. It deserves patronage, and we are glad it receives it. As we often crib items of news from its second edition, we wish to cancel the account by authorizing to selp itself to our columns, for if there is any news down east we are sure to have it.

Virginia Election.

There now appeared to be no doubt but that the Whigs have carried Virginia. The counties already heard from have returned fifty whige and thirty four Locos to the Legislature, making the whig not gain of fourteen, which GEO. WHEELWRIGHT & SON exactly nutralises the loco majority, provided the whige gain nothing more. They will probably make large gains in the counties to be intend keeping a good assortment of heard from; and all our papers, both whig and Cloths, Cassimeres, Satinets, loco agree that the whigh have carried the House and probably by a sufficient number of members to give a majority on joint ballet .-Only a portion of the Senate is chosen this year. It is certain that Goggin is elected to Congress by a large majority. It is probable that Bailey is elected from Wise's district by a very small vote over Carter. The news is great, good, glo

Washington letter writers represent the political atmosphere at Washington as growing decidedly cold as to Mr Van Buren's prospects His letter on Texas is strongly denounced by many of his political friends.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Monday, April 29. In the Senate, the morning hour was devoted to the reception of petitions.

The Post Office Bill was read upon its final pas. sage, and found an unexpected stumbling block in speeches from Messra Benton, Hannegard, Bagby of Ala. The bill was then passed and sent to the House of Representatives, by a vote of 23 to 14-

The Tariff Bill was next considered. Mr. Dayton of N.J. made an able speech for the Tariff of 1842 and in answer to the arguments made against this measure, by Senators on the other side. The day was devoted to the subject.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union, and took up the Tariff Bill. Mr Weller addressed the Committee for an hour a noisy speech against the Tariff. Mr Weller was the fifth Loco Foco member who had spoken in succession, and the floor was now given to Mr Ramsay of Pa, who addressed the Committee upon the other side .-Mr R. defended the Tariff of 1842, and gave a menly defence of the Whig policy.

The surprising good effacts produced by LOKRAINE'S VEGETABLE PILLS in Coughs, Pain in the side, back, head, etc., has excited a deep and thrilling interest throughout the community. It is difficult to credit our senses, when we see people evidently in a rapid decline, soon restore to perfect health, by the power of this extraordinary Medicine; yet this is the fact of daily occurrence. How then can we

question the healing virtues of LORRAINE'S PILLS! Lorraine's Vegetable Pills

Are now acknowledged to be the best Medicine in the world, for the cure of every variety of Disease, because they cleanse the Stomach and Bowels of those Billious humors which not only weaken the digestive organs, but cause sleepliness, headache, nausea and vomiting; palpitation of the heart, rheumatic pain in the various parts of the body, and many other unpleasant symptoms.

Extrabrdinary Virtues-The extraordinary virtues of Lorraine's Pills depends upon extracts of over 50 different Vegetables, all so admirably combined as to purity, nodrish and invigorate the human system. These Pills when taken are digested and pass into every part of the system, and in their effects destroy the morbid humors, and powerfully purge them off when taken in sufficient quantities, yet so mild in their operation as not to be offensive to the most delicate.

Directions-From 1 to 6 of Lorraine's vegetable pills, taken every night on going to bed witl, in a short time so completely rid the body of every thing that is opposed to health, that Rheumatism Gout and pain of every description, will be literal ly driven from the body. From the same reason, when from sudden changes of atmosphere, or any other cause, the perspiration is checked, and those humors which should pass off by the skin, are thrown inwardly, causing Headache, Giddiness Nausea and sickness, pain in the bones, watery and inflamed eyes, sore throat, hoarseness, coughs.consumptions, the umatic pains in various parts of the body, and many other symptoms of catching cold, Lorraine's vegetable pills give immediate relief.

The Condition-The condition upon which nature gives health to man, is a watchful care to keep his stomach and bowels free from morbid and unhealthy accumulations. Lorraine's pills admirably effect this, because they cleanse the body and purify the blood. Lorraine's pitts leave the body through every pore, when they have effected their purpose, eve atone does the eve, and is the reward.

It should be remembered, that Lorraine's vegetable pills will loosen and carry off by the stomach and bowels those phlegmy humors which stop up the air cells of the Lungs, and are the cause not only of the above distressing complaints, but when neglected, often terminate in a still more dreadful malady called Consumption.

It should be remembered also that Lorraine's vegetable pills are a certain cure for pain in the side, oppression, nausea, sickness, loss of appetite, costiveness, a yellow tinge of the skin and eyes and every other disease of a torpid or diseased state of the Liver; because they purge from the body those impurities which if deposited upon the important organ, are the cause of every variety of Liver complaint.

WRIGHT'S

To descant upon their various virtues at this late! season would be a work of supererogation, since tew who peruse this article will be found unacquainted with the widely circulated proofs of the real excellence of the Medicine, to which many will be ready to add the testimonials of their own experience. But it further proof were needed of the value of the femedy it might be found in the fact that no Medicine in the market has been so hamelessly and repeatedly counterfeited. Ignorant, envious, avaricious, and unprincipled men, have in different places, manufactured a spurious pill, bearing a superficial resemblance to the true article, but composed either of impotent or delete-upon the public as the veritable Indian Vegetable Pills.

These traudulent Swindlers could never pass off their vile wares upon the public but for the countvance and assistance of self-styled respectable Druggists, who, for the sake of a little " filthy lucre," lend themselves to the monstrous and unhallowed system of imposition. The counterfeiter of a popular medicine is more crimical than a counterfeiter of current money. The injuries done by the latter sink to nothing in comparison with those inflicted upon society by the former. We might paint him wringing the mite from the hard hand quitovalid penury which is extended for the boon of health and readynamic and the view from the total. health, and secesves instead the vice crug that protracts and aggravates disease, or to tien in in its best aspect, suffers it to rage unchecked. How inclunction is the reflection that thousands may have been hurried to the grave by having a counterleit substituted for the true Medicine, who but for the venal traud might now be living in high health, the delight and hope of the social circle.— All classes are interested in putting down these vile Counterfeiters.

Let the Stores where they are sold be marked and Shunned. Let the virtuous indignation of the community administer to all concerned in these unfair practices a general and withering rebuke CAUTION: The public will please observe that the genuine
